

Youth Housing and Reintegration Service (YHARS)

Housing support for young people

The Youth Housing and Reintegration Service (YHARS), supports young people aged 12–21 who are experiencing homelessness or are at risk of homelessness.

We work alongside you to find safe and stable housing, build independence and work towards your goals.

Case Management support is available across the South-West Brisbane corridor.

We can help you:

- Find and maintain safe, suitable housing
- Build the skills and confidence to live independently
- Reconnect with family, carers and community supports where appropriate
- Access education, training and employment opportunities
- Connect with health, wellbeing and specialist support services
- Set goals and plan for your future

Is this service right for you?

You may be able to access support if you are aged 12 – 21 and:

- Experiencing homelessness or at risk of homelessness
- Living in temporary, unstable or unsuitable accommodation
- Sleeping rough
- Transitioning from Child Safety services
- Returning to the community after time in youth detention
- Leaving care following statutory intervention
